

ive the Alas for the Poor, and other beaute of the people, in a decent busin time of trouble. Paul Ali. in a Property our Core; that under hanswe may be godly and r lendeth unto the Lord; and flessed be the man that prowid him again. Prov. xix. what he liveth out, it shall of necessity. Tobit iv. self a good reward in the little: far so gutherest thou diligence gladly to give of sely: if thou hast little, do hou hast much, give plenbe merciful after thy power. oy from thee. Tobie iv. Lord shall not be turned der hen, that they may truly and all that are put in authority und hame may agree in the truth of and godly love. We beseech thece unto hes whole Council, and to quietly governed; And and concord: And grant, that all with the spirit of truth, unity, thually the universal Church beseeching thee to inspire conoffer unto thy Divine Majesty, prayers, which we receive these our tations, and to The left out seemed of Mediate may be kingdor for Jesu exampl us grac fear; parted Name Sickne Puny life are all the

beseed

the Prayer Book must have been printed before 1870. of England and Ireland" ceased to exist in 1870 (when the Irish Churchwas dis-established), Church. One photograph shows the top of the title page of the Ordinal; as the "United Church The Communion Book which is still in use is almost certainly the original one used at Christ and restored the book to use, trusting his memory for the Sovereign's name!) out of the book and so It was put out of use; Mr. Cherry had a copy of the missing page made the Church, in the Communion Service (Our present Queen's name is omitted as one page fell The other photograph shows the alterations made to the Sovereign's name in the Prayer for