

A close-up, high-resolution photograph of a lion's face, focusing on its eye and the texture of its golden-brown fur. The lion's eye is a light, golden color and is looking slightly to the left. The fur is thick and has a mix of brown and gold tones. The background is dark, making the lion's face the central focus.

AMOS

In the book of Amos we are introduced to our God as a roaring lion who comes in judgement on a deeply unfaithful people. It shows us a God who cares about justice, and the deep depravity of our hearts. Dr. Paul Barker will be joining us to introduce the book of Amos to us before we teach on it this term. It will be helpful for anyone wanting to deepen their understanding of the Bible and the God we serve.

About Dr. Paul Barker

Paul Barker is an Assistant Bishop in the Anglican Diocese of Melbourne. Until 2016 he worked for Langham Preaching in Asia and taught in a variety of seminaries. He is the author of The Roaring Lion: expositions on Amos and numerous other publications. Formerly he was Senior Minister of Holy Trinity Anglican Church Doncaster, Melbourne.
